What's SINA?

Southside Institutions Neighborhood Alliance (SINA) is a partnership linking Connecticut Children's Medical Center, Hartford Hospital, and Trinity College with each other and their neighbors in the City of Hartford. It's Mission is to work cooperatively with community stakeholders to improve the quality of life and create economic vibrancy in south central Hartford for the benefit of people who live, work, visit, and study in these neighborhoods.

For more information visit: www.sinainc.org.

What's REACH?

REACH (Recognition, Education, Achievement and Community Health) is a SINA program in which its mission is to develop, support and recognize individuals who positively contribute to the growth of the Hartford Community. The REACH Committee is made up of SINA board members, employees of the SINA institutions, and select members of the community.

About the Scholarship

SINA Student Support Scholarship was established in 2013 in collaboration with Capital Community College (CCC). SINA is offering a scholarship opportunity for students who reside in SINA's service areas who are continuing with their higher education. Four $500 scholarships in the combined amount of $2,000 per year will be awarded annually to qualified CCC students. SINA's REACH Committee will review applications and select recipients. Recipients will be recognized at the Annual REACH Awards Ceremony
